STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

The Maryland Public Ethics Law and City of Greenbelt City Code includes standards of conduct applicable to financial disclosure filers and other City employees. The standards address disqualification from participation, prohibited secondary employment, prohibited ownership interests, misuse of position, prohibited solicitation and acceptance of gifts, misuse of confidential information, post-employment limitations, prohibited dealings with the State, and procurement specifications assistance restrictions. The Law provides for exceptions and exemptions under certain circumstances. Filers wanting more detailed information about these requirements should contact the City of Greenbelt Ethics Commission.

PRIVACY NOTICE

The Public Ethics Law (State Government Article, Title 15), Annotated Code of Maryland) and City of Greenbelt City Code requires the collection of this information, which will be used primarily for public disclosure and to determine compliance with the Law. The information may be disclosed to any requesting person, including officials of State, local or federal government, who records their name and address, and this record will be provided to the filer upon request. The subject has the right to review, correct and amend the record as set forth in the Public Ethics Law, Md. Code Ann., State Gov't § 10-625 (Supp. 2004). Failure to file or to report information required by Public Ethics Law §15-607 and City of Greenbelt Ethics Ordinance No. 1318 Section 2-6, can subject you to civil and administrative penalties including termination or other disciplinary action, suspension of pay, a late filing fee up to $250, and a civil fine of up to $5,000 per day. Willful and false filing is subject to criminal penalty for perjury pursuant to Criminal Law Article §9-101, Annotated Code of Maryland.
